CO-CAPTAIN's MESSAGE:

Once again it was my pleasure to fly 12 grade 5&6 students from the Owen Sound Christian Reform School as Young Eagles. This is the 3rd time that I have flown children from this school, and I must say what a privilege it is -- rarely do you get to meet such fine, enthusiastic, bright, well mannered children. A tip of the hat to their teachers who organized the outing, Diane Jonker and Ange Degelder.

The group arrived at 8:50am sharp, ready to have the paperwork processed by Joan Bulmer. Lorne Schroeder took them on their aircraft familiarization and walk around, and Glenn Goodyear escorted them, 3 at a time, to and from my aircraft for their flight. By 12:15pm I had flown all the kids, and took Diane and Ange up for a tour as well. To Diane I say "How sweet it was!!" Thanks to all who helped make it a great day!!

Our regular Young Eagles day is scheduled for this Saturday, June 10, and thanks to Paul Kastner and "our Jenn", the word of the event was spread through the area schools and local newspaper. We had our table set up at our sponsor's store, Solway's Garden Market IGA, on May 28th for parents to pre-register their "Eagles". Set up and registrations were handled by Joan Bulmer, Paul Kastner, Lorne Schroeder, Jenn MacLeod and myself. The booth was open from 9am - noon, and to date, we have 34 youngsters scheduled to fly. Thank you to all who helped!

YOUNG EAGLES PRE-REGISTRATION DAY

Paul Kastner & Lorne Schroeder ~ Paul, Joan Bulmer, Lorne & a "young eagle" parent

We are most fortunate in having Mike Solway, owner of the IGA, as our sponsor - he provides the hot dogs, soft drinks and other goodies for the day as well as allow us to use his facilities as a sign-up station. Thank you Mike!

At 11:00am Lorne and I left our post at the Young Eagles station to take in the Edenvale Flying Club/CCAF Fly-In. We left Wiarton at 11:19am and landed on runway 26 at 11:53am, to be greeted by the friendly enthusiastic Edenvale group. On-ground marshalling was handled in an expert manner and when we arrived at least 28 visiting aircraft was already there. In the next two hours many planes came and went... we estimate over 50 aircraft visited!

The CCAF (Collingwood Classic Aircraft Foundation) are quite comfortable in their new home and were on hand to tell visitors about their work and promote their annual Gathering of the Classics, to be held at Edenvale (CNV8) on the fifth of August this year.

After a complimentary lunch and a walk around, it was time to leave. As we were walking to my plane we met one of the CCAF's long-time members, Bernie Currie, who still volunteers every Thursday with the group. Her specialty is applying fabric to the aircraft, a job she learned while working at the #1 AOS (Air Observer School) in 1942. A couple of years ago we featured a story about Bernie in our newsletter, whom I have been acquainted with for years through my sisters, who both worked with Bernie at Malton during WWII! Nice to see you Bernie, keep up the good work!

Bernie Currie

Lorne and I would like to say thank you to the fine group at Edenvale for their hospitality, especially Gilles Merceir and Sandy Cahill!

See you next month!
