 Publication #84, HTML Version

A NOTE FROM THE EDITOR:

Last month, we commented on our Wiarnton Willie's Early Spring prediction that obviously went wrong. Later during that week, heading into Owen Sound, after 77cm plus of snow and it still falling, I spotted this sign that I couldn't not resist taking a picture of and sending it to you:

Owen Sound Golf & Country Club

Although a little snowy - the words are:
DUST OFF YOUR CLUBS WILLIE SAYS EARLY SPRING

Wednesday, February 22 was Guy Doherty's 7th Annual Rust Remover Seminar at the Billy Bishop Airport (CYOS Owen Sound). The day started off with our official launch of the Platinum Triangle Poker Run, with hands sold at intermission. All Poker Run Packages will be delivered this week, with the exception of Tobermory and Port Elgin, who's strips are covered in deep snow.

Jim Farmer of Owen Sound spoke briefly, announcing that he was in the process of starting a COPA flight at their Airport. We were please to see that his list had several interested folks who had signed up. Good Luck Jim!

Because of the number of people in attendance (57), Guy split us up into two groups, sent one upstairs and the other downstairs.

Upstairs, Greg Mansell, sales manager of Leavens Aviation from Toronto spoke on engine care and management, as well as pass along useful tips on cold weather starting, and Wayne Juniper from Transport Canada spoke about modifications and repairs that one can do on his/her own aircraft and still be legal.

Downstairs, Larry Norris (who flew in from Oklahoma for the day), technical specialist with Conco Phillips, supported by Canadian sales manager Paul Curphey and Mal Wilson from London, gave a very interesting presentation about Conco Phillips Oil, their viscosity ratings, cold weather use, and other tips on oil usage. Jim Nyhuus of Transport Canada spoke on endeavoring to get more participation from pilots in the reporting of infractions that they might see in their travels.

After the presentations, we all gathered back upstairs where Guy and his daughter Amanda drew the winners for the many door prizes.

All in all this was a fine day with great speakers and a good variety of snacks for all present. A Salute and our thanks to Guy Doherty for all his hard work in putting this day together.

As many of you are aware of, COPA is in the midst of an election for three director positions in Southern Ontario. Nine candidates are running for this position, and we have placed a spot on our website for folks to view candidate information for those who have sent us their biographies.
